

Dr. Doğan GÜLTUTAN
Academic, Attorney and Arbitrator

ENGLISH CONTRACT LAW

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

CONTENTS

|                                                                      |            |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| FOREWORD.....                                                 | VII |
| PREFACE .....                                                 | IX  |
| LIST OF STATUTES AND CASES .....                              | XI  |
| CHAPTER 1: MAIN THEMES OF ENGLISH CONTRACT LAW.....           | 1   |
| A. Freedom of contract .....                                         | 2          |
| B. Notion of objectivity .....                                       | 3          |
| 1. The general rule of objectivity.....                              | 3          |
| 2. Room for subjectivity.....                                        | 7          |
| C. Bilateral and unilateral contracts.....                           | 9          |
| D. Formality requirements .....                                      | 11         |
| 1. Formal and informal contracts .....                               | 11         |
| 2. Oral contracts.....                                               | 12         |
| CHAPTER 2: OFFER .....                                        | 15  |
| A. In general .....                                                  | 16         |
| B. The conventional approach to construing offer and acceptance..... | 17         |
| C. Offers in particular settings.....                                | 21         |
| 1. Displays .....                                                    | 21         |
| 2. Advertisements.....                                               | 22         |
| a. Advertisements of bilateral contracts.....                        | 22         |
| b. Advertisements of unilateral contracts .....                      | 24         |
| 3. Tenders.....                                                      | 26         |
| 4. Auctions.....                                                     | 28         |
| D. Counteroffer.....                                                 | 29         |
| E. Battle of forms.....                                              | 30         |
| F. Withdrawal and revocation of offer .....                          | 32         |

CHAPTER 3: ACCEPTANCE .....35

|                                                               |    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| A. In general .....                                           | 35 |
| B. Requirement for knowledge .....                            | 36 |
| C. Communication of acceptance .....                          | 37 |
| 1. The “receipt rule” .....                                   | 37 |
| 2. The exceptions.....                                        | 37 |
| a. Acceptance by conduct .....                                | 37 |
| b. Acceptance by post: the postal rule.....                   | 39 |
| c. Acceptance by silence.....                                 | 41 |
| D. Acceptance in unilateral contracts or by performance ..... | 44 |

CHAPTER 4: CONSIDERATION AND PROMISSORY*ESTOPPEL .....49

|                                                               |    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| A. In general .....                                           | 50 |
| B. The deed exception .....                                   | 50 |
| C. Definition .....                                           | 50 |
| D. Sufficiency of consideration .....                         | 51 |
| E. Forbearance of legal rights .....                          | 52 |
| F. Criticality of request .....                               | 54 |
| G. Past consideration.....                                    | 55 |
| 1. The general rule.....                                      | 55 |
| 2. The implied assumpsit exception .....                      | 56 |
| H. Performance of pre-existing contractual or legal duty..... | 58 |
| I. Part payment of debt .....                                 | 60 |
| J. Promissory estoppel .....                                  | 63 |

CHAPTER 5: INTENTION TO CREATE LEGAL RELATIONS .....67

|                                        |    |
|----------------------------------------|----|
| A. Introduction .....                  | 68 |
| B. Domestic and social agreements..... | 68 |
| 1. Presumption.....                    | 68 |
| 2. Rebuttal of the presumption.....    | 69 |
| C. Commercial agreements .....         | 70 |

|                                                                            |            |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 1. Presumption.....                                                        | 70         |
| 2. Rebuttal of the presumption.....                                        | 70         |
| CHAPTER 6: CONTRACTUAL TERMS .....                                  | 71  |
| A. Incorporation of contract terms.....                                    | 72         |
| 1. In general.....                                                         | 72         |
| 2. Incorporation by signature.....                                         | 73         |
| 3. Incorporation by notice .....                                           | 75         |
| 4. Incorporation by course of dealing.....                                 | 77         |
| B. Interpretation of contracts .....                                       | 77         |
| 1. The traditional approach.....                                           | 78         |
| 2. The modern approach.....                                                | 79         |
| a. Prenn v Simmonds.....                                                   | 79         |
| b. Investors Compensation Scheme v West BromwichBuilding Society ..... | 80         |
| c. Wood v Capita Insurance .....                                           | 82         |
| d. The Ocean Neptune .....                                                 | 85         |
| e. The judges' debate .....                                                | 86         |
| C. Uncertainty, vagueness and incompleteness .....                         | 88         |
| 1. Agreements to negotiate and/or agree .....                              | 88         |
| 2. Incomplete and vagueness of terms.....                                  | 89         |
| D. Classification of contractual terms .....                               | 91         |
| 1. Conditions and warranties .....                                         | 92         |
| 2. Innominate (or intermediate) terms .....                                | 94         |
| E. Implication of terms .....                                              | 96         |
| 1. Terms implied by courts .....                                           | 97         |
| a. Terms implied in fact.....                                              | 97         |
| b. Terms implied in law.....                                               | 99         |
| 2. Terms implied by legislation .....                                      | 100        |
| CHAPTER 7: THE CONTROL OF EXCLUSION CLAUSES.....                    | 103 |
| A. Introduction.....                                                       | 104        |

|                                                   |     |
|---------------------------------------------------|-----|
| B. Control of exclusion clauses .....             | 105 |
| 1. Judicial control of exclusion clauses .....    | 105 |
| a. Incorporation of exclusion clauses .....       | 105 |
| b. Interpretation of exclusion clauses .....      | 106 |
| 2. Legislative control of exclusion clauses ..... | 109 |
| a. UCTA 1977 .....                                | 109 |
| i. The UCTA “gateways” .....                      | 110 |
| ii. Requirement of reasonableness.....            | 111 |
| iii. Burden of proof.....                         | 112 |
| b. CRA 2015 .....                                 | 112 |

CHAPTER 8: MISREPRESENTATION .....115

|                                                                  |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| A. Introduction.....                                             | 116 |
| B. Conditions of liability .....                                 | 117 |
| 1. Representation as to fact or law.....                         | 117 |
| a. In general.....                                               | 117 |
| b. Representation by silence or conduct.....                     | 120 |
| c. Continuing effect of representations.....                     | 121 |
| d. False implications in otherwise correct representations ..... | 122 |
| e. Representation by conduct .....                               | 123 |
| 2. Materiality, reliance and inducement.....                     | 123 |
| a. In general.....                                               | 123 |
| b. Materiality assessment .....                                  | 124 |
| c. Reliance and inducement .....                                 | 125 |
| d. Burden of proof.....                                          | 126 |
| C. Remedies .....                                                | 127 |
| 1. In general.....                                               | 127 |
| 2. Rescission: election and bars .....                           | 128 |
| 3. The Misrepresentation Act 1967 .....                          | 129 |
| 4. Categories of misrepresentation .....                         | 130 |
| a. Fraudulent misrepresentation .....                            | 130 |

|                                                       |            |
|-------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| b. Negligent (or statutory) misrepresentation.....    | 132        |
| c. Innocent misrepresentation.....                    | 133        |
| 5. Damages in discretion.....                         | 133        |
| 6. Exclusion of liability.....                        | 135        |
| D. Negligent misstatement.....                        | 136        |
| CHAPTER 9: MISTAKE.....                        | 139 |
| A. Introduction.....                                  | 140        |
| B. Mistake vitiating formation of contract.....       | 141        |
| 1. Mistake as to identity (or creditworthiness).....  | 141        |
| a. In writing cases.....                              | 142        |
| b. Face-to-face / eyeball cases.....                  | 143        |
| 2. Ambiguity in agreement.....                        | 146        |
| 3. Mistake as to terms.....                           | 147        |
| C. Common mistake.....                                | 147        |
| D. Rectification.....                                 | 151        |
| E. Non est factum.....                                | 152        |
| CHAPTER 10: DURESS AND UNDUE INFLUENCE.....    | 155 |
| A. Introduction.....                                  | 156        |
| B. Duress of the person.....                          | 157        |
| C. Duress of goods.....                               | 158        |
| D. Economic duress.....                               | 158        |
| E. Threats to commit breach of contract.....          | 159        |
| F. Lawful act duress.....                             | 160        |
| G. Undue influence.....                               | 160        |
| CHAPTER 11: FRUSTRATION.....                   | 163 |
| A. Introduction.....                                  | 164        |
| B. Rationale.....                                     | 165        |
| C. The modern cases.....                              | 168        |
| D. Parties' knowledge of relevant factual matrix..... | 172        |
| E. Frustration of common purpose.....                 | 173        |

|                                                              |            |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| F. Self-induced frustration .....                            | 177        |
| G. Role of foresight .....                                   | 180        |
| H. Timing of assessment .....                                | 181        |
| I. Effect on contract .....                                  | 182        |
| CHAPTER 12: BREACH AND REMEDIES .....                 | 185 |
| A. Introduction .....                                        | 186        |
| B. Breach of contract – the basics .....                     | 187        |
| C. Anticipatory breach .....                                 | 189        |
| D. Action for agreed sum .....                               | 191        |
| E. Damages .....                                             | 193        |
| 1. In general .....                                          | 193        |
| 2. Basis of quantification .....                             | 196        |
| 3. Date of assessment .....                                  | 197        |
| 4. Remoteness of loss .....                                  | 198        |
| 5. Special types of losses .....                             | 201        |
| a. Loss of chance .....                                      | 201        |
| b. Mental distress .....                                     | 203        |
| 6. Rule against penalties .....                              | 204        |
| F. Equitable remedies .....                                  | 207        |
| ANNEX 1 – UNFAIR CONTRACT TERMS ACT 1977 .....        | 209 |
| ANNEX 2 – MISREPRESENTATION ACT 1967 .....            | 233 |
| ANNEX 3 – SALE OF GOODS ACT 1979 .....                | 237 |
| ANNEX 4 – SUPPLY OF GOODS AND SERVICES ACT 1982 ..... | 281 |
| ANNEX 5 – LAW REFORM (FRUSTRATED CONTRACTS)           |            |
| ACT 1943 .....                                        | 309 |